Hire a Personal Butler

Planning a dinner party or entertaining clients in the office can be a hassle. But new to Malaysia is Room Service Deliveries – they'll deliver food from restaurants within an hour. For a minimum order of RM20, a trained butler arrives with your food piping hot in a specially designed hot bag, then he arranges and serves it if you want. It's currently available only for the Klang Valley area. Call 03-6201 2400.

Relationships and body language expert, Dr Wei analyses the love gestures of socialite, millionaire and party princess Paris Hilton and her mother, Kathy.

With a "prized daughter" like Paris, any mum will go into a "protective" pose as Kathy does. However, she seems to have lost some balance, becoming more fan than mum. Paris however, seems confident and looks like she knows what she wants. Maybe she feels she's already learnt everything her mum can offer. But looking at how Kathy has got her arms wrapped tightly around Paris, perhaps this mother can't quite let go of her celebrity child.

Dr Wei Siang Yu aka Dr Love has a Bachelor's degree in Medicine from Monash University, Australia. He hosted a show called Love Airways, which made headlines by frankly discussing intimate relationships in Asia. He also has a reality show out in late 2006 in several Asian countries: Dr Love Super Baby Making Show, supported by Fremantle Media.
